

Theory of Operation Document

Description

The program is a help tool for online poker players. It is suitable to simulate a poker tournament with fix limit raise roles and give hints for the users about their next decision according the odds and the current state.

